

THE "WAR LORD"—HE HAS A SOFT SPOT

The photograph shows Emperor William playing with the children at the children's Home in Jena. It is not a new picture, but it shows that the war lord is not all war lord.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

Lima, Peru.—The city of Carayoli, which has about 4,000 inhabitants, has been greatly damaged by an earthquake. It is not believed that the loss of life, if any actually were killed, has been very heavy.

New York.—Southern Railway postponed for one month consideration of issuance of regular dividend on preferred stock.

Bemidji, Minn.—Miss Ida Hendricksen, schoolteacher just home from Europe, declared the pope died at about 2 p. m., Aug. 19, but public knew nothing of it until next morning.

Liancourt.—Village of 4,000, on road from Amiens to Paris, being 36 miles out from latter city. Reported to be scene of battle.

Otto Gaulla, 16, 4140 N. Kimball av., killed by auto. Louis C. Thomssen, 3452 Dickens av., pinched.